The Palace, Mysore,

1st November 1916.
2nd

My dear Sir,

His Highness will be glad to know whe... ... New European Guest Quarters will be ready for occupation and what arrangements it is proposed to make in the way of servants, crockery, linen &c., for the convenience of guests using the building. He understands that the building has not yet been furnished and that it was used for the last Dasara for the accommodation of Indians. In view of the bad Hotel accommodation now available, it seems desirable to open the New European Guest House as soon as possible. In order not to compete with local Hotels the Empire Hotel might possibly be allowed to do the Catering - this is only a suggestion.

Yours sincerely,

Draft reply

Bangalore
15th November 16,

D. O. No. 4440/Ex: on file

My dear Sir,

In reply to your D. O. letter No.130 dated the 1st November 1916 regarding the New Travellers' Bungalow adjacent to the Empire Hotel at Mysore, I resubmit herewith for His Highness' information the file relating to the rules for the occupation of the two new buildings referred to in the list in file No. Munl.163 of 1914-15.

(2.) It will be seen therefrom that the rules for the occupation of the buildings and the establishment and the furniture required therefor were formally sanctioned by His Highness on 5th September 1916. The building had to be reserved for the accommodation of Indian Guests during the Dasara week.

(3.) The rules therefore took effect from the 1st November 1916, the marginally noted establishment having been entertained. The necessary crockery and linen have been purchased and supplied.

1 Sweeper, and
1 Scavenger.

(4.) Tenders have been received for the supply of new furniture for this building. In the meanwhile the rooms have been furnished with the best available furniture from the Camp Secretariat Stores at Mysore.

5. Travellers who live in European style, may either avail themselves of the services of the meti, or get their food from the hotels in the neighbourhood. Only Indian gentlemen who live in European style are permitted to use the building.

6. Applications from Mr. J.M.Mysorewalla, Proprietor of the Empire Hotel, for leasing the building and from his father Mr. H.C.Mysorewalla for managing it as a Travellers' Bungalow have been received and are pending consideration. The suggestion that the arrangement for the New Travellers' Bungalow should not compete with the local hotels will be kept in view in disposing of these applications.

7. Mr. Narayanaswamy Iyengar, Registrar, who is in immediate charge of the building will consult you personally in regard to improvements needed.

Yours sincerely,

15/11/16.

My dear Sir,

With reference to our recent conversation, I am sending you a note which I have prepared on the subject of the furnishing and management of the European Guest House at Mysore. I may say that His Highness approves generally of the suggestions made in the note and would be glad to have your own views on the subject. It would be easy to make the Guest House a sort of adjunct to Government House and Staff Quarters for Budget purposes if you agree with my note. I return the papers which you sent me with your D.O. No 4440 of 15th inst.

Yours sincerely,

Note on the European Guest House

at Mysore.

I assume that the object in building this Guest House is to provide a large and really comfortable place for the accommodation of European and Indian visitors to Mysore who live in European style. It is notorious that the Hotel accommodation at present available in Mysore is so bad that many people who would otherwise go there are kept away. The need for the new Guest House requires no argument, but it is absolutely necessay, if the building is to serve its purpose and attract high class European and Indian visitors to Mysore, the greatest care should be taken to start it on proper lines and to keep it really up to the mark. We do not want it to degenarate into a second rate sort of Chattram.

The following remarks have occurred to me after making a personal inspection of the building:-

(1) The Rules for the Guest House, which I found hung up in the verandah, make a cardinal mistake in throwing the building open to all "non-vegetarians". This term obviously includes meat eating Hindus and Mahommedans who do not live in European style. I need hardly say that if people of this class (who do not use European tables, glass, linen and crockery who do not sleep on European beds, and who have entirely different habits in the matter of cooking, bathing, etc) are once admitted to the Rest House, people who live in European style will cease to go there. There is no racial question here. It is entirely a question of habits of living. It is in the first place esential that only people who live in a purely European style and should be allowed to use the Guest Hous[illegible] and this should be mentioned in the rules.

(2) The second essential is that the place should be properly furnished. I noticed that the Bed Rooms and Bath Rooms were rather on the small side, but they are commodious enough, and the two Sitting Rooms are very nice and spacious. The Bath Rooms were already dirty, the result of the indiscriminate use made of this building during the Dasara.

(3) First as regards Bed Room furniture. This should be simple but serviceable with every convenience for both ladies and gentlemen. It is of the greatest importance that the pillows and mattresses on the beds should be kept scrupulously clean and that a sufficient stock of bed linen and towels should be kept in stock so as to ensure a clean supply for each new comer. A supply of toilet soap toilet paper & disinfecting powder should be kept. The Bath Rooms and all their furniture [illegible] also be kept really clean. A Double supply of mosquito curtains should be provided so that these may always be clean. Table electric fans should also be provided as the nights in Mysore are sometimes hot and there is not too much ventilation in the bed rooms. A small writing table with writing materials should be supplied to each bed room also a table electric candlestick. Each room should contain at least one cane easy chair for ladies and a long arm-chair for men. These chairs should be provided with clean back covers as they easily get stained and dirty from contact with the occupents heads. A small cotton carpet should be placed in each room as the floors are tiled. I do not recommend matting, as the tiles are far cleaner if kept unmatted. One square carpet in the middle of each room, and a small rug under each writing table and one in each Bath Room would be sufficient. The windows should be furnished with white muslin half-blinds to ensure privacy when the windows are open.

For the convenience of married couples the two rooms on each side of the Sitting Rooms should be connected with each other by door ways. This will enable husbands and wives to occupy adjoining rooms and to communicate with each other. At present no such communication is possible except through the verandah.

A curtain may be provided for each of these communicating doors. A small folding screen is also necessary in each room.

I shall be glad to advise as to details of furniture required for each room.

(4) Sitting Rooms:- These rooms have to serve as dining rooms as well as Sitting Rooms.

Each room should have at least two good writing tables with writing materials. A stock of stationery may be kept for the use of visitors. This may be stamped "European Guest Quarters, Mysore". All good Hotels supply such stamped stationery free.

Instead of having one large dining table, I would prefer three small round or square tables so that different families can sit separetely. There should be one centre table for books, Magagines, etc., and at least six easy chairs. Two more easy chairs may be placed in each verandah. There should also be a few nice teapoy tables. A large oblong carpet should cover the centre of the room. There should be clean muslin curtains for doors and windows. Two portable electric fans are necessary for each room, as the central ceiling fan is not sufficient for all purposes. Two folding screens may also be placed in each room to screen people from draughts and to admit of the room being divided up if occupied by more than one family.

Table linen, glass, crockery and cutlery should be of the best quality and kept clean.

(5) Then as regards catering:- It is essential that the food should be clean and wholesome and of the best class such as Europeans in private houses are accustomed to. To secure this end we require either good servants of our own including two cooks, with assistants, one first class reliable Butler, who has served in good European families and three smart table servants.
It would save trouble however if we could get some Hotel Proprietor or catering Firm to undertake the catering. I am sure that there are people in Bangalore who would undertake the catering for a year if they were guaranteed against loss, Spencer & Co., who have the Railway Refreshment Rooms, would do it well. If we could get some catering Firm to undertake the feeding, we need only provide one reliable Butler to look after the building and furniture with a Maty under him, and I infinetely prefer this arrangement as it is very difficult for us to ensure decent feeding with only a Butler in charge and no stores in stock. A catering Firm would do it far better. I do not recommend the employment of the people who run the Empire Hotel as they would have no inducement to run the show properly. The Gordon Hotel people are not famous for good feeding either and I would prefer to get a really good European Firm from Bangalore to undertake the catering.

It may be objected that we ought not in this matter to compete with local Hotels but my answer to this argument is that the local Hotels are so bad that European visitors are actually kept away from Mysore for want of decent board and lodging. A little competition is under the circumstances eminently desirable as we want to attract visitors to this beautiful place. The local Hotels are a veritable by-word for badness and discomfort.

I would like to say in conclusion that it is not an easy thing for an Indian Secretary to Government with his Head Quarters at Bangalore to ensure the proper maintenance of the Guest House. An European Officer in charge would know from personal experience exactly what was wanted from time to time and could at once put his finger on the weak spots. If so desired, I am quite willing to undertake the general supervision of the place provided that I am given a Sub Overseer and a decent Butler and staff of servants. I have not mentioned the number of menial servants required. These are a matter of course. I think a gardener should be kept and a good garden made in front of the building.

The New Travellers' Bungalow (The European Guest House)

The Private Secretary to H. H. in his D.O. of the 18th inst. expresses his willingness to undertake the general supervision of the New Travellers' Bungalow (The European Guest House) and constitute it as an adjunct to the Government House and Staff Quarters. He suggests –

1. that only persons who live in a purely European style should be allowed to use the Guest House and that the rules may be altered accordingly
2. that he would advise as to the details of the furniture required for the several rooms in the building;
3. that the work of catering may be entrusted to a decent agency like Spencer & Co who may be guaranteed against loss during the first year.
4. that an establishment of a Subadar, a decent butler, a gardener and a staff of servants may be entertained for the building.
5. that some more doors may be opened out in the building

If the above suggestions are concurred in,

1. the building will have to be taken out of the control of the General Secretary;
2. further details in regard to the conveniences required for the travellers using the building from the Private Secretary

The Palace,

Fernhill, 11th April 1917.

My dear Sir,

I am directed to return the papers forwarded with your D.O. letter No.4814 dated 27th March 1917 with the following observations.

Put up herewith

His Highness approves generally of the draft Government Order which accompanied your letter above referred to, but would suggest a few modifications.

2. Adverting to para 2 of the draft Government Order, I am to point out that a great deal yet remains to be done in the way of additions and alterations to the new European Guest Quarters, before they can be considered really suited for their purposes. At present there is no Servants' Staircase to communicate with the upstairs Bed-rooms and this is urgently required. The building also contains no Pantry, Scullery, Store-room, Servants' Godowns, Stables or Coach House. The kitchen too is far too small. All these are essential matters. I shall consult the Public Works Department with a view to the preparation of plans and estimates and meanwhile I am to suggest that a Budget provision of Rs.8,500/- may be made for the alterations and additions that may be decided on.

3. As regards furniture, Crockery &c., now that this building is to be an adjunct of Government House, there seems no point in the Private Secretary consulting the Public Works Department regarding what is required and the words "also for the supply of the necessary articles of furniture, Crockery &c." may be omitted from para 2 of the Government Order under reference.

Referring to para 4 of the draft Government

Order, I am to recommend the following Establishment for the European Guest Quarters.

One Butler on	Rs.20/-
One Cook "	" 18/-
3. One Cook's Maity. . . .	" 12/-
One Waiter "	" 10/-
One Female Scavenger on. . .	" 6/-
One Watchman.	" 7/-
	Total Rupees 73/-

All these servants are absolutely necessary, Mysore is a difficult place in which to procure Cooks & Butlers except on somewhat high wages.

It does not seem necessary to have a special Sub-Overseer for the charge of the building. The Butler can look after linen and stores and catering and can receive fees subject to the control of the Superintendent, Government House, while the ordinary D.P.W staff of Mysore, can see to structural upkeep and repairs. For the present, I do not propose to employ a gardener.

4. Adverting to para 5 Rule I, I am to point out that the Dasserah and Birthdays are the times at which ordinary European visitors to Mysore find most difficulty in procuring accommodation. The Rule says that the building is to be reserved for the occupation of Guests during the Dusserah and Birthday festivities but it is not clear who these guests are likely to be, as Staff Quarters are available for Gazetted Officers and there will be few, if any, other guests who live in European Style ÷ It is essential that only Europeanized guests should be allowed to occupy the building even temporarily - On the whole it seems to His Highness preferable to keep the building open to travellers at all times of the year and not to reserve it during the Dusserah and

Birthday festivities. At the same time a provision may be
5 inserted in Rule I. that travellers cannot occupy this building without the permission of the Private Secretary - Unless this precaution is adopted, it is almost certain that we shall have ineligible people (i.e., those who do not live in European Style) and possibly also undesirable persons invading this
(5) building. After all visitors must give notice if they want to be fed and it is no hardship to an intending traveller to write to the Private Secretary beforehand for permission to use the building. Without such a rule it is impossible to guarantee that the building will be kept clean and in decent order. I believe that such a rule is in force in most Indian States. Even during the Birthday and Dusserah, rooms can be specially reserved by the Private Secretary for any officers or guests for whom the Government wish to reserve accommodation.

The Rules should also provide that travellers can 6 obtain ordinary meals on payment, if they give reasonable notice to the Butler in charge.

The Rules should absolutely prohibit any cooking
7 in the Bath-rooms or verandahs or any cooking by travellers of their own food. Food should only be supplied by the Butler. A tariff rate for each meal may be fixed in the Rules, the rates adopted by Spencer & Co., on the Madras and Southern Mahratta Railway, being followed.

The Rules should also state that no liquor can be 8 supplied on the premises and that travellers must make their own arrangements in this respect.

5. I am making out a list of furniture, Crockery, linen &c., that is required and I shall in due course send an estimate to Government and apply for an allotment of funds. Meanwhile it will save delay if a provisonal allotment of 9 Rs.1,000/- can be made in the Government House Budget under this head - There is at present very little furniture in the building and even what there is will have to be replaced by better articles. The beds for instance are lined with hard boards and are not suitable for European travellers. I shall endeavour to supply as many articles as possible from the Government House Stock.

10 6. Rule II.(10) may be altered and the Butler made responsible for procuring supplies and providing meals on payment. It should be laid down that the Butler shall give receipts for all payments made to him. Printed receipt books in duplicate may be supplied to him for this purpose.

7. In conclusion, I am to point out that the recent introduction of catering arrangements at Staff Quarters and the supervision that the European Guest Quarters will require, will throw a considerable amount of additional responsibility on the Superintendent of Government House and the Government House Butler. Neither of these individuals can be said to be over paid. The Private Secretary is absent from Mysore for nearly half the year and in his absence a great deal of initiative is thrown on the Superintendent and in a minor degree on the Butler. Until only recently, Mr.Donne , a highly paid official had direct control of Government House under the Military Secretary and the Superintendent worked under him. Mr.Donne retired some years ago and has not been replaced and the whole burden of responsibility now falls on the Superintendent and a comparatively small clerical Establishment. I am to suggest that in consideration of these facts the Superintendent's pay may be increased by Rs.50/- per mensem and that of the Butler by Rs.10/-

I shall be obliged if you will kindly inform His Highness of your opinion on the various suggestions which I have made above.

Yours sincerely,

Sir M.Visvesvaraya K.C.I.E.,

Bangalore.

My Dear Sir,

I write with reference ~~Please refer~~ to the correspondence ending with your demi-official letter No. 276, dated the 11th April 1917, regarding the control and management of the New Travellers' Bungalow at Mysore.

The Council have since considered the matter and, in their opinion, it is desirable that the Bungalow should remain under the control of the General Secretary, in order to facilitate the accommodation of the very large number of Indian Guests invited for the Dasara and His Highness's Birthday, as much difficulty is now experienced in finding suitable accommodation for them.

The Council have, however, no objection to treat the building as primarily intended for the use of visitors living in the European style, except on very special occasions ~~of emergency~~ and they also agree that it should be equipped and maintained

all the 3 annual functions in an efficient condition on the lines suggested in your letter.

I consider that a fair trial may be given to the scheme already sanctioned but as modified above and the question reconsidered, if necessary, at the end of 1918.

These views may kindly be placed before His Highness for favour of orders.

THE PALACE,
MYSORE.
10th August 1917.

My dear Sir,

I write in reply to your D.O. letter No.5048 of July 21st 1917

Put up herewith

His Highness regrets that he is unable to accept the view of the Council regarding the control and management of the New Travellers' Bungalow at Mysore, as he feels very strongly that it can be properly managed only by an officer whose head-quarters are in Mysore. The Private Secretary to His Highness is best able to do this work.

As regards the difficulty experienced in finding suitable accommodation for Indian Guests invited for the Dasara and His Highness's Birthday, His Highness can only say that the remedy is to provide more accommodation by building an annexe to the Indian Guest Quarters

Visitors from all parts of India like to come and see the Processions and they should be encouraged by the assurance that accommodation will be available on these occasions. It is, His Highness thinks, a great mistake to close the new Travellers' Bungalow to visitors on these occasions. Rooms can always be reserved for two or three Indian Guests, who live in European style, the rest of the Bungalow being left open to visitors.

You mentioned to me in conversation the other day that you were opposed to the new Travellers' Bungalow being treated as an adjunct to Government House. On this point I am directed to explain that the Private Secretary is absent from Mysore during certain periods of the year and that it is essential that the Superintendent of Government House, Mysore, should have authority to look after the Travellers Bungalow under his orders during his absence. This is really all that is intended by the phrase "an adjunct to Government House". Another advantage will be that I can indent on Government House for any furniture that may be required for the new Travellers' Bungalow. Furniture, Crockery, Linen, Cutlery etc., could at any time be supplemented from Government House. This would be a great convenience.

The staff of servants at the new Travellers' Bungalow should be quite separate, but His Highness still thinks that the Superintendent should be given some allowance for the additional work and responsibility thrown on him. An extra local allowance of Rs.25/- per mensem would perhaps suffice.

I am to request that the matter may be reconsidered in Council in the light of His Highness's views above expressed.

There will be no difficulty about catering provided that we have proper staff of servants and that the kitchen is enlarged and accommodation provided for a Pantry and Store room. These are very urgent matters. A motor shed and servants quarters are also very urgently needed.
